Callander Kirk Church of Scotland SC000396

Following the congregation's involvement with Future Focus and the Kirk Session's prayerful review of the outcomes, a new vision statement for Callander Kirk has been approved, based on Matthew 28: 18-20 and Jeremiah 29: 11-13.

“To be a flourishing, Gospel-centred church that, through discipleship, seeks to follow where God leads.”

Please pray for all those who will be involved in planning the Kirk's journey towards this vision.

Can we help in any way?

Please feel free to speak to the minister, or one of the office bearers on the door, especially if any of the following apply:

You would like a visit from a minister; you are new to the district

Someone you know: is in hospital or now home;

is now confined to the house; would like to be put on the prayer list

Taxpayer? If you are giving money to the collection, please use and complete the brown envelopes on each pew to enable us to reclaim Gift Aid.

Families and Creation Corner: There are colouring packs available at the main doors of the church to help occupy younger members of the congregation. Please feel free to use Creation Corner during the service, for colouring or to play with toys which are provided there.

Prayer for the Nominating Committee

The candle of Hope and Unity is being lit at each service from now until the Induction of a new minister to remind us all of God's love and the need for His strength at this time.

The congregation is asked to pray for the members of the Nominating Committee in their work and a prayer has been written for this purpose. Copies of the prayer are in the vestibule for those who do not already have a copy and copies are also available at the 10.00am service. Please feel free to take one and use it regularly.

Come and join us for a day of exploration and discovery. Cost £15. For further information please see poster in vestibule.

Concert at St Mary's, Aberfoyle we are delighted to welcome Kevin Duggan, Simon Oberst and Ursula Bambuch to St Mary's, Aberfoyle on 21st May. Kevin Duggan is a composer, musical director and accomplished musician who has performed widely to great acclaim. He is currently organist of Dunblane Cathedral and also Musical Director of the Roseneath singers. It will be very exciting to hear him performing in St Mary's with two wonderful singers - Simon Oberst and Ursula Bambuch, who specialise in Early and Baroque music. Simon lives in Cambridge and Ursula in Denmark. So both are travelling considerable distances to come and sing for us. They were both amongst the very distinguished soloists at the recent performance of the Bach St John Passion at Dunblane Cathedral sung for us by the Rosenethe Singers, with Kevin Duggan conducting.

More details of their programme will follow shortly - so please come and join us at St Mary's for what promises to be a superb hour long concert on Sunday 21st May.

Tickets for all concerts are £10 from concerts0310@yahoo.co.uk
